

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF STATE VETERINARIAN
Sacramento.

P R O C L A M A T I O N

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

Sacramento, Cal., March 1, 1915.

WHEREAS, The State Veterinarian of the State of California has ascertained that cattle located in certain areas in San Luis Obispo, Orange and San Diego Counties in the State of California, hereinafter described, are liable to communicate an infectious disease, known as Texas, splenetic or southern fever, to cattle located in other parts of the State of California, should said cattle located in the areas hereinafter described be shipped, moved, transported, driven or grazed over the lands situated in any other part of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An act to protect domestic live stock from contagious and infectious diseases, to provide for the appointment and duties of officials to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to provide an appropriation therefor," which became a law on March 18, 1899, and as amended March 20, 1905, and March 23, 1907, and as further amended and approved March 19, 1909, the State Veterinarian of the State of California, in order to prevent the spreading or communication of said disease of Texas, splenetic or southern fever in cattle has, on this first day of March, 1915, quarantined the following areas in the State of California:

All that part of San Luis Obispo County lying north of the Cambria-Adelaide road, beginning at the intersection of said road lations as to the movements of cattle from said quarantined areas in the State of California:

From and after this first day of March, 1915, every person, company, corporation, their agents and servants, are hereby prohibited from driving, leading, moving, carrying or transporting, or from causing or permitting to be driven, led, moved, transported, carried or drifted into any other part of the State of California, any cattle originating or being in the aforesaid quarantined areas of San Luis Obispo, Orange and San Diego Counties unless such cattle have first been inspected by the State Veterinarian, or his duly authorized deputy, and are accompanied by a certificate issued by such officer stating that said cattle are free from contagious and infectious diseases and cattle ticks (Margaropus annulatus); provided, however, that when said cattle are shipped or transported on railroad trains for immediate slaughter inspection and certification of such cattle will not be required, but that when so shipped or transported by railroad the following regulations must be observed:

On unloading said cattle at their destination, or for food and rest en route to same, separate pens must be set apart to receive them, and no other cattle shall be admitted to said pens. The cars that have carried said cattle shall be cleaned and disinfected before they are again used to transport, store, or shelter animals or merchandise.

All cars carrying said cattle shall bear placards stating that said cars contain "SOUTHERN CATTLE," and each of the waybills of said shipments shall have a note on its face with a similar statement.

The cars used to transport such cattle shall be cleaned and disinfected in the following manner:

(a) Remove all litter and manure. This litter and manure must be stored where no cattle can come into contact with it for a period of at least six months.

(b) Wash the cars with water until clean.

(c) Saturate the entire inner surface of the cars, including the inner surface of the car doors, with a mixture of one and one half pounds of lime and one quarter pound of pure carbolic acid to each gallon of water; or with a solution made by dissolving four ounces of chloride of lime to each gallon of water.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a violation of any or either of the foregoing rules and regulations shall be an offense, and punishable as provided by the laws of the State of California.

Now, therefore, I, HIRAM W. JOHNSON, as Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do hereby proclaim the areas described in this proclamation quarantined within the State of California; and further hereby proclaim the foregoing rules and regulations prescribed by the State Veterinarian for the maintenance and enforcement of such quarantine to be legal and binding rules and regulations within the State of California, and I do further proclaim that said rules and regulations shall be maintained and enforced within the State of California, and that a violation thereof shall subject all persons so violating any of said rules and regulations to the penalties provided for in section eight of that said act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An act to protect domestic live stock from contagious and infectious diseases, to provide for the appointment and duties of officials to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to provide an appropriation therefor."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of this State to be hereunto affixed, this first day of March, A.D., 1915.

Wm W. Johnson

Governor of the State of California.

ATTEST:

Frank C. Jordan

Secretary of State.

My Friend & Co. Agents

